

SUBJECT AND OBJECT PRONOUNS (elementary)

Substitute the underlined words with subject pronouns.

1. My mother comes from France and my father comes from Italy.
2. Emily and Christina live in a big house by the road.
3. My brother and I go to school on foot every morning.
4. Gerome works in an Italian restaurant.
5. Are your brother and you from Canada too?
6. Edna and I are ill in bed now.
7. The dog barks at people in the street.
8. Sean likes his science fiction books.
9. My car is not working at the moment.
10. Fernando plays football every Saturday afternoon.

Substitute the underlined words with object pronouns.

1. They like my house, but I don't like their houses so much.
2. Paul never tells Donna about his job.
3. Many people are looking for the missing girl.
4. Please, don't tell my parents.
5. The teacher is asking the students some easy questions.
6. Michael likes Laura, but Laura doesn't like Michael.
7. John lives next to his parents, and his parents live opposite John.
8. My mother gives my sister and me an apple every morning.
9. Sue always invites her friends to her birthday party.
10. Sandra hates spaghetti and rice.

Substitute the underlined words with subject or object pronouns.

1. The team meets every Sunday morning.
2. Brian and his brother know Fionna and Laura.
3. Donald speaks German fluently.
4. Open your books now!
5. My family bring presents for the neighbours at Christmas.
6. Angela reads books on the bus.
7. Joe and his sister have bread and butter for breakfast every day.
8. Do you understand all of the questions?
9. Do Orna and Paul come from a Mediterranean country?
10. The car's windows are making a terrible noise and we are worried about this noise.